Gospel Reflection

Recently I had a skin rash, and it was awful. (Please don't tell anvone.) I am embarrassed to admit that I didn't handle it well. Complaining, whining, begging for sympathy, and crying were my responses to the merciless itching and burning. In the aftermath, a silver lining emerged. I feel a new heartfelt sympathy for all those vexed with chronic skin problems. If you've ever had a seemingly unending skin problem, you know how that sympathy flows up from deep inside.

This gut-level compassion is something like what the Gospel describes in Jesus when the sore-covered leper says, "If you will it, you can make me clean." At this, just before the healing, Jesus was "moved with compassion." The Greek word used here is strong and earthy, closer to "his bowels and guts trembled with the deepest emotions of sadness, pity, and love." In Jesus, God heals our infirmities not from a divine distance but by learning what it feels like to be us. He acquires first-hand experience of what it costs us to be afflicted and still be faithful to God. He sympathizes with the burning, itching, and blistering of human existence in the deepest, first-hand way. To discover that is to touch Jesus' heart.

What in your life, right now, is breaking out like diseased skin? What is getting worse the more you try to soothe it? Perhaps only you feel it. Or maybe it's exposed to all. A bad habit, broken relationship, loneliness, fear of failure, self-hatred? Name it, and then find a way to bring it confidently to Jesus who will feel what we are feeling, and thereby heal us.

— Father John Muir

This Wednesday our special collection supports the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. Communism in this region fell more than 30 years ago, but the Church still struggles to rebuilt after decades of oppressive rule. Under communism, religion and religious practices were openly persecuted, and atheism was actively propagated and enforced. Your support of this collection funds grants that support vital pastoral ministries throughout the region. That means you support seminary programs, promote ministries and education for children and families, rebuild churches, and renew community life. Thank you for your consideration in support of this collection.

It's that time of year to update our business directory. If you would like your business listed, please contact the office, 719-395-8424 or email: office@strosebuenavista.org. If you would like your current listing removed, please inform the office of that as well. Thanks!

We thank all who contributed to our 2023 Diocesan Ministry Appeal (DMA). Here is how our numbers turned out: St. Rose of Lima contributed a total of $34,535, of which an estimated refund of $2,819, which will be refunded in the spring, comes back to the church.

St. Joseph Mission donations totaled $9,990. An estimated refund of $1,150, which will be refunded in the spring, returns to St. Joseph Mission.

The faithful stewards of each parish have upheld our purpose to renew Christ for one another with their time, talent and generosity. United as one faith family, we have been able to do what one cannot accomplish alone with a total of $3,191,958.60 collected from 5,251 donors (as of January 16, 2024). As we close the 2023 Appeal with strength, perseverance, and gratitude, we once again bear witness to stewardship as a way of life from our faithful.

We have only started our 2024 DMA. Our appeal for this year asks for a total of $2.8M. The Appeal begins February 1 and ends December 31. Any funds received in January of the new year will be applied to the current year's Appeal. St. Rose of Lima's total goal this year is $29,633; St. Joseph Mission's goal is $7,677.
