THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

His disciples recalled the words of Scripture,
Zeal for your house will consume me. - Jn 2:17

Gospel Reflection

When I was 22, I entered St. Peter's Basilica for the first time. It floored me. I could hardly take it in, its grandeur, majestic arches, vibrant colors, and the light that danced through its high windows. Somehow, amidst such splendor, I felt an overwhelming sense of belonging, as if I had finally come home.

Jesus reorients how we Catholics see sacred buildings. In today's Gospel he says, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up" (John 2:13-22). His riddle implies, shockingly, that his own body is now the fundamental dwelling place of God and humanity. The temple in Jerusalem has been superseded.

In our churches today — whether they mirror the basilica's grandeur or embrace humble simplicity — we experience architectural symbols of Christ's risen body. It is no accident we call them "churches": they make visible in brick-and-mortar Christ's body which is made up of the living stones we call Christians. Each church building, like St. John Lateran in Rome, or St. Peter's, or any other, is meant to be a vibrant sign of Christ's resurrected body. We should cherish and protect our churches as places where heaven touches earth, where we, as a community, are raised to the fullness of life in Christ.

— Father John Muir

Did You Know?

The Formed Platform has a video series on "Opening Up the Treasures of the Mass" a video collection of 31 short episodes on the Elements of the Catholic Mass. From the episode titled Purpose of the Mass: "In everything we do in life, it is essential to understand the goal or purpose, if we want to participate in a fruitful manner. In the Catholic Mass, the goal of our worship is quite clearly directed at the praise of God and the sanctification of the world. In fact, the Church puts these very words on the lips of her ministers and faithful at every celebration of the Eucharist." May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name for our good and the good of all His holy Church.

Come and learn with us and/or access FORMED by visiting: <https://signup.formed.org>; enter our parish's zip code (81211); enter your name and your email address. That's it! You're in. Now you can get the free FORMED app on your phone.

Did you know there are churches in Rome older than St. Peter's? St. John Lateran is one of four major basilicas in the Eternal City, and it is by far the oldest. The land was donated by an ancient Roman family to the Emperor Constantine, who in turn gave it to the Church. For hundreds of years, St. John Lateran was the "mother church." Popes lived on the grounds through the 14th century. The church itself suffered from pillaging by invaders, fires, and earthquakes. It has been restored and rebuilt five times since the 300s. On this feast, we remember more than a building. We celebrate the resiliency of our faith. Though trials may come in our parishes, personal lives, and the world, the Church endures through the grace of Jesus Christ.

Our churches are attended by many Veterans from various services. Veterans Day, as you know, is a U.S. federal holiday observed annually on November 11, the anniversary of the end of World War I, to honor all who have served in the United States Armed Forces.

Originally known as Armistice Day to commemorate the end of World War I, the name was changed in 1954 to honor veterans of all wars. It is a distinct holiday from Memorial Day, which specifically honors those who have died in military service. We may not know them all, but we owe them all. Thank you for your service and enjoy this special day held in your honor.
