Dear Lord,

Your redemption has been known in every age. You have never stopped inviting us closer into your presence. Fill us anew this Easter season, bringing new hope, new life, and new light into our journey. Amen.

Diocesan Diaries Devotions Explained

Retreat

Spiritual retreats are an act of removing oneself from one's daily life for a period of prayer and reflection, with the intent of returning to that daily life transformed.

It was Christ himself who was the greatest and earliest advocate of spiritual retreat. In the Gospels, he is constantly depicted as withdrawing from other people to be alone in prayer. Likewise, participants in a modern retreat most often go somewhere like a retreat center to seek silence, solitude and communion with God. There are many different varieties of retreats; they can be guided and take place in a group setting, or they can be undertaken alone by just one person. Some are focused on a specific topic or theme; some are defined by periods of total silence. Though clerics are compelled by canon law to go on retreat regularly, all faithful are encouraged to make retreat part of their spiritual life. (source: wecreate.4lpi.com)

Within Thy Wounds

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The prayer I love best in the world is the Anima Christi. This private, devotional litany of supplication, begins with the phrase "anima Christi, sanctifica me" ("soul of Christ, sanctify me") and continues on to appeal individually to each aspect of Our Lord's crucified flesh: "Body of Christ, save me; blood of Christ, inebriate me; water from Christ's side, wash me; passion of Christ, strengthen me; Oh good Jesus, hear me." Then comes my favorite part: "within thy wounds hide me."

The Anima Christi is a prayer traditionally said after receiving Holy Communion. The ancient Celts spoke of liminal places, where the veil separating this world from the next is particularly thin, and I believe the moments immediately following the reception of Holy Communion, when the Host is dissolving on my tongue, create a liminal place. When I am in that place, I am as intimately connected to God as I can be while my heart is still beating.

And when I am there, holding God within me, what are the words that I speak? It's overwhelming to think about. What could possibly be right to say?

There is no right or wrong answer, I suppose. But the best words I can think of are these: "Within thy wounds, Lord, hide me."

There is a reason Christ showed his wounds as he said the words, "Peace be with you." It was not just a means of identifying himself — it was a catechism lesson. Here, he was saying. Here is the peace you will not find anywhere else.

College of Consultors Elects Father Kyle Ingels as Diocesan Administrator

COLORADO SPRINGS. On March 26, the College of Consultors of the Diocese of Colorado Springs elected Father Kyle Ingels as Diocesan Administrator. According to the Church's Canon law, when the office of the bishop is vacant, a diocesan administrator is chosen from among its priests to maintain the diocese in the proper direction. As faithful sons of the Church, the College of Consultors is unified in their decision as they prayerfully await the appointment of a new bishop by the pope.

The Diocese of Colorado Springs invites you to attend formation sessions offered by Professor Lucas Pollice. He will explain the Implementation Phase of the Synod as it is being carried out in the Diocese of Colorado Springs and three pathways of renewal: humility, unity, and charity. He will also discuss the cultural and ecclesial realities behind Pope St. John Paul II's call for a New Evangelization and explore the missionary renewal of Vatican II. Professor Pollice will be at St. Rose of Lima on May 7 at 6:30 pm in the Parish Hall. All are welcome to attend.

PRAYER FOR A NEW BISHOP

Almighty and ever-living God, in your faithfulness, grant to the Diocese of Colorado Springs a shepherd whose watchful care and kindly zeal will continue the good work of his predecessors.

In your love for us, give us a shepherd who will lead us in being Christ's heart of mercy, voice of hope, and hands of justice. Let him who is chosen to be our shepherd strive to live more and more each day with holiness of life and heroic virtue so that he will lead your holy people in all truth.

Prepare him, we humbly pray, to fill our minds and hearts with the truth of the Gospel, the power of the sacraments, and the desire to actively work to build up your holy Church.

Loving God, grant our Holy Father Pope Leo wisdom in discernment as he chooses a new bishop for this local Church. By your divine providence, grant us a shepherd after the heart of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, whose benevolent care and zealousness will strengthen the people of God.

We ask this through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, patroness of the Diocese of Colorado Springs, and in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
