Consecration of the United States of America to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

In honor of the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, the US Bishops will consecrate the United States of America to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. So that the faithful can give thanks for the blessings God has bestowed on our country and pray for an increase in truth, justice and charity in American life, join us on June 12 at 6:30 pm at Sacred Heart Parish, 2030 West Colorado Ave, CS 80904. The principal Celebrant is Father Jarrod Waugh, CSC; Homilist: Fr. Randy Rentner, CSC. Following the mass, an image of Servant of God Brother Columba O'Neill, CSC, will be blessed and installed in the narthex. A reception in the parish center follows.

Trinity Prayer

O Divine Mystery, O Sacred Trinity!
Surround us with Your wisdom, love, power, and grace.
Draw us to Yourself. Help us to rest in Your goodness. Amen.

St. Justin Martyr (c. 100 - 165) was a second century apologist. His detailed texts show the depth of the Catholic tradition and were meant to dispel rumors of the early Church practices during the Roman persecution. An eyewitness account of his martyrdom still survives today.

Devotions Explained

Prayer After Meals

Just as praying before a meal, praying after a meal is meant to inspire in Christians an attitude of thanksgiving and an acknowledgment of our dependence on God.

Though it is a less common practice in the modern world, early Church fathers like Tertullian and St. Jerome extolled the importance of praying after a meal, and the Christian poet Prudentius composed hymns for before and after meals (“ante cibum” and “post cibum”).

There are no “official” prayers for after a meal, but the most common one said by Catholics is this: “We give thee thanks, almighty God, for all your benefits, who lives and reigns forever and ever. And may the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace.” It is a benediction which recalls our perpetual fellowship with the entire Body of Christ, including those who have passed from this life.
